

Why You Should Be Committed to be Present at Every Meeting of the Church

- Not Because:
 - You always feel great
 - Not because you have all your ducks in a row
 - Not because you've never been insulted or offended by brethren
 - Not because the teacher or speaker is outstanding
 - Not because you always feel wanted or needed
 - Not because there are never hypocrites
 - Not because there are never issues or problems to resolve
 - Not because you believe Christianity is just about meeting with the saints, because it isn't
 - Not because you believe just being present is all that matters, because it isn't

Why You Should Be Committed to be Present at Every Meeting of the Church

- Because:
 - It is the will of God by command and example
 - To exhort others
 - To obtain spiritual strength
 - You want/will to
 - Christ is present
 - You want to be like the first century Christians
 - You have an influence
 - For the sake of unity
 - You need to grow spiritually
